Dear Parents, Families, and Youth:

I am pleased to present the Boston Centers for Youth & Families Summer Guide 2014. Inside you will find something for everyone whether it's a traditional summer day camp or a sports league, a new rock climbing instruction program or educational offering - it's all here! I urge you to take advantage of all that BCYF has to offer. Summer is a great time to be in Boston and there is so much to do. In addition to what BCYF offers, you can find out about summer activities and programs offered by other City departments and private non-profits by going to www.cityofboston.gov/youthzone or by calling 617-635-KIDS.

I look forward to seeing you and your family this summer!

Sincerely,

Martin J. Walsh
Mayor of Boston

Dear Parents, Families, and Youth:

Our BCYF community centers truly are community treasures. Each center is as unique as the neighborhood it's in and together BCYF is a vast network of opportunities! No matter your age, you will find something to interest you as well as a place to meet new friends and try out new things. During the summer, BCYF is hopping, serving over 14,000 young people, keeping them active and their minds learning so they are ready for the return to school in the fall.

As the new Chief of Health and Human services I look forward to working with you all to make our beloved BCYF community centers even better. Due to the early print deadline of this guide, I encourage you to contact BCYF centers directly for updated program and registration information. Please see the center list on the proceeding page for contact information.

Have a wonderful summer!

Sincerely,

Felix Arroyo
Chief of Health and Human Services

Snap Shot Teen Photography Program

Snap Shot introduces teens to all aspects of photography. Led by a professional photographer, the program includes visits to art galleries and museums, “photo safaris” around Boston and gives the teens the opportunity to serve as “staff photographers” for many BCYF programs and events across the City. The teen photographers’ work will be used in BCYF publications and exhibited at the end of the summer. Participants are paid by John Hancock’s MLK Summer Scholars Program and attend a workshop every Friday. For more information, please call 617-635-4920x2209.

BCYF Sox Talks Baseball Clinics

10:30am

Ages: 14 and under

The BCYF Sox Talk Baseball Clinics, sponsored by the Boston Red Sox and the Boston Police Athletic League, are a series of baseball clinics followed by an appearance by Red Sox players and coaching staff. Young people will have the chance to work on their baseball skills before the players arrive. Once the Sox players and staff arrive, they will join the clinic and work with groups of youth on various skills after which they will answer a few questions. Youth groups and camps are welcome to participate.

BCYF Summer Drop-in Programs in the Parks

Starting July 7

Monday-Friday, 12-6pm

Ages 8-18

These free drop-in programs provide structured games, sport activities and arts projects for up to 50 children per location. Offered at ten locations throughout the city, this is an affordable, flexible option for parents who are looking for a summer activity for their child for a couple hours a day. Some locations provide lunch; other sites may require children to bring their own lunch. Please confirm with staff in advance. At publication time, locations were still being finalized so check the BCYF website for additional information.

Summer Golf Course Management Program

Devine Golf Course, Franklin Park, Dorchester

George Wright Golf Course, Hyde Park

July 7-August 15

Monday-Friday, 8am-1pm

Ages: 15-17

This one-of-a-kind educational summer employment program offers participants the opportunity to learn and explore the daily operations of Boston’s golf courses including course maintenance and management such as assisting with pro-shop retail, scheduling tee times and PGA Professionals’ golf lessons and executing tournaments. Space is limited and an interview process may be conducted. Interested candidates must complete an application and register with the Mayor’s HOPELine in February. For more information, contact BCYF Recreation: 617-635-5206x105.

Summer Tennis and Reading Program

July 8-August 16

Monday-Friday

Ages 6-10: 9am-12pm

Ages 11-16: 1-4pm

In partnership with BCYF, Tenacity offers a free tennis and reading program in the summer for children ages 6-16 at 22 locations across Boston. Participants will receive fun tennis instruction, fitness games and daily reading activities to stem summer learning loss. In addition, more advanced players have the opportunity for team tennis matches with other sites and may enter the Mayor's Cup Tennis Tournament in early August. Equipment is provided. This program is for Boston residents only and children with disabilities are encouraged to apply. Please contact Tenacity with any questions about the ability to serve your child's special needs. Advance registration is encouraged beginning April 15th, as space is limited and some sites fill up early. Registration should be done online at www.tenacity.org. For more information contact Tenacity at 617-562-0900x27 or BCYF at 617-635-5206x101. Please check under neighborhood listings on the following pages for locations or visit www.tenacity.org.

SUPERTeens Program

Youth ages 13 and 14 are at that "in between" age where they are too old for traditional summer camps yet too young to work. To serve this population, we designed this pre-employment program to provide participants with the opportunity to attend weekly leadership development workshops, gain hands-on experience by working in 10 BCYF Community Centers and participate in scavenger hunt field trips to Boston's arts and enrichment institutions. Sponsored by SUPERTOURS with support from BNY Mellon. For more information, please call 617-635-4920x2209.

Teen memberships are $5
at all BCYF Centers!

Check with your local center for additional teen programming.
